per month for a family plan — but employers usually pick up much of that.

"This is an issue of patients vs. insurance companies," Sen. Edward Kennedy said on ABC's "This Week." "It's as simple as that. The American people ought to watch this debate and be a part of it in this next week."

For a while, Democrats seemed to have the upper hand going into the debate. In the Senate, a determined group of senators — even those in the minority party — can wield enormous power. Democrats managed to shut down business until Republicans agreed to a debate that would allow them to offer their amendments.

But the GOP leadership fired back a procedural salvo last week. It arranged for the Democratic bill to be the starting point for this week's debate. This allows Republicans to talk about what they dislike about the Democrats' approach, while making it more difficult for Democrats to hammer the GOP bill.

The plan also makes it more awkward for Democrats to offer their amendments, since they will be trying to change their own bill. But Democrats plan to do it anyway, simply to get the votes on the record.

Near the end of the debate, the GOP will offer the final amendment substituting its bill for whatever is on the table. And if Republicans hold together, that's what the Senate will pass.

Twenty-third Psalm

THE Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures. He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies. Thou anointest my head with oil: my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I shall dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — While Ford Motor Co. maintains that alleged defects in its ignition system in 20 million cars don't cause stalling or endanger passengers, a series of lawsuits nationwide blame stalling in various models for crashes in which at least 11 people died and 31 were injured.

Also, internal Ford memos indicate the company was concerned that the ignition design could make engines stall — resulting in "rapid catastrophic failure" — at high temperatures.

Fifty Years Ago
October 1947

The deal has been closed between Clarence Lord and wife and Mr. and Mrs. Darrel Scranton. The building in Farmer in which Mr. Lord has run a barber shop and Mrs. Lord an ice cream parlor and restaurant for several years and when the furniture has been disposed of Mr. Scranton will occupy the east room as a garage and welding shop, and Mr. Lord will continue to use his west room for his tonsorial work. This building has been occupied by someone as a barbering room for several years and people hope it may always be run as one. The community and especially the school children are going to miss the ice cream parlor when it closes, which they visit regularly during the noon hour.

The Women's Welcome Club is starting its first year with much interest and activity. This club was started by the Literary Forum on Feb. 18, 1947, when all new women residents of Bryan were invited to a tea and social program. From this meeting a club of 50 members has been federated. The main purpose of this organization is to make social and civic contact for all new women in Bryan.

A feature of the club is an information booklet of facts about Bryan which are useful to new residents.

Much credit goes to Mrs. Harlan Spangler and Mrs. Emerson Wertz, members of Literary Forum, which sponsored the Women's Welcome Club.

Sarah, Ping, Hollie & Albert;

How are you all getting along? Will make this a family affair.

I'm feeling fine and dandy and getting fat.

Work always did agree with me you know and I am certainly getting plenty of it.

The bugle blows at 5:30 and I have to be out in front by 6 for roll call, then breakfast. after that have to make my bed sweep & mop then drill from 7 to 11:30 then dinner. 1 to 4 drill 4 to 5 play retreat at 5:15 and the days work is over (another dollar made) lights out at 9:30 and must be in bed by 10.30. It would not be so bad if there was any place to go but we are under quarantine and the canteens and Y.M.C.A close at retreat. so you see what kind of a fix I am in.

I suppose as soon as we get our third shot which will be some day this week they will raise the quarantine and then will have a chance to see the sights. Want to get a chance to see Louisville before I am transfered. Expect will be transfered inside of the next two weeks to make room for the new bunch that comes in the 26th. Dont know whether it will be to some other part of this camp or to some other camp. expect it will be farther east.
Very doubtful if I get a chance to get home for a long time, anyway am not looking for anything like that.

Well boys how is school got any lickings lately.

Ping you big fat son of a gun how are you since you got back from Old Virginny did you find a nice little dark complected girl while you were there.

Have you heard how Glen likes Camp life. Does Sonny Farmer go with this next bunch?

Dont know any more to write so will have to quit.

Give my regards to all

as ever
